

Law Enforcement Torch Run to Benefit
Special Olympics Wyoming
2018 International Conference, Las Vegas
Application Form

Due: Friday, June 1, 2018

It opens up a whole new world of possibilities...

Purpose

Every year, law enforcement officers representing their state, province or nation's Torch Run program, have the opportunity to attend an International Law Enforcement Torch Run conference.

This conference offers inspirational speakers, ceremonies, sessions, and time to interact with officers from around the world.

We have found it to be an amazing motivational occasion.

Selection

Applications may be submitted by an individual or a law enforcement agency. All applicants should include a completed nomination form (1 page). All applicants will be presented to the Wyoming Law Enforcement Torch Run Executive Council for consideration.

The Torch Run Director shall appoint three council members to create a selection committee. It will be the recommendation of this committee that will be put forth to the council for a final confirmation. An applicant who is a member of the council will be recused from the discussion.

Criteria

The applicant's involvement must demonstrate a sustained and noteworthy contribution to the achievement of the goals of the Law Enforcement Torch Run. The minimum requirements to apply to represent Wyoming at an International Conference are at least two years of participation in the Torch Run, achievement in program development, organization and fundraising success.

Consideration will be given to regional representation.
