"Whether you're in law enforcement, it doesn't matter what your role is, what your occupation is, when you invest in other people's lives, you can make a difference....you're making a difference in their life, but it also changes your heart and life as well."

*Keith Groeneweg
Ret. WHP, SOWY Board Member &
LETR Councilmember*

On your mark....

The Law Enforcement Torch Run® (LETR) is a year-round movement to raise funds & awareness for Special Olympics athletes. The Torch Run is successful because of the generosity of businesses and individuals throughout Wyoming.

Each year law enforcement officers from across the state volunteer their time to raise funds and awareness for the SOWY athletes through t-shirt sales and fundraising events including the Jackalope Jump, Tip a Cops, World's Largest Truck Convoy®, and The Fire Truck Pull. In addition to raising funds, law enforcement volunteer their time medaling athletes. Officers carry the Flame of Hope across Wyoming to the SOWY State and Area Games where they light the cauldron to signify the official opening of the Games.

"Let me win.
But if I cannot win,
let me be brave
in the attempt."
