

The Torch Bearer

Newsletter of the Law Enforcement Torch Run to Support Special Olympics Wyoming
FINAL 2019

FINAL TALLY $ 184,778.15

That's a lot of jumps, t-shirts, tips, entry fees with a generous dose of passion. If you haven't heard it before: We are so grateful for the involvement and engagement of our Law Enforcement Community!

We've had a few changes to our Torch Run Council

The Law Enforcement Torch Run to Benefit Special Olympics Wyoming is coordinated by a small group of experienced, dedicated and passionate Law Enforcement representatives.

Matt Kortitnik and vice-chair Director Mike Samp have led the The Torch Run council for the last three years. For the first time a formal vote was taken for the next Chair of the Council, Keith Groeneweg will serve as the next chair of the council.

Thank you Matt and Mike for your leadership, they will continue to serve on the council. Thank you Keith for stepping up! If you have questions about the council, please contact Keith or Priscilla Dowse.

The Special Olympics Wyoming Board of Directors approves an additional staff position to support the Law Enforcement Torch Run (and Jackalope Jump)!

Director of the Law Enforcement Torch Run

Job Overview

Coordinates and provides oversight to the development of resources and management of the Law Enforcement Torch Run, including the Jackalope Jump. This position serves as the liaison to the Law Enforcement community.

Please share the Job Description, if you know of someone qualified and interested please ask them to send a letter of inquiry and resume to Priscilla Dowse by Friday, January 24th.

THANK YOU!
